

UNIVERSALIST NATIONAL MEMORIAL CHURCH PRESENTS A Day of Interfaith Worship and Unity

SUNDAY, JULY 26, 2015 - 11:00 A.M. until 1:30 P.M.

Universalist National Memorial Church, a Christian congregation in the Unitarian Universalist tradition, is pleased to announce an upcoming day of interfaith worship, friendship and reflection led by Pastor Crystal Lewis and Imam Mehmat Ayaz of the Ezer Bloom Mosque in Fairfax, Virginia. Pastor Lewis and Imam Ayaz will each present a brief sermon on the following theme:

"What Do The Bible & Qur'an Say About Welcoming People of Other Faiths?"

The schedule of events for the day will include the following:

A Worship Service - 11:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Join us for a service combining traditional elements of Christian and Muslim worship. Music will be provided by the UNMC choir. Imam Mehmet Ayaz and Pastor Crystal Lewis will present prayers for peace and unity along with a joint sermon on the day's theme.

Light Refreshments - 12:15 p.m. to 12:55 p.m.

Stay after the worship service to build bonds of friendship across religious boundaries. Tour Universalist National Memorial Church with a member of our congregation to learn more about the history of our building and the Universalist Christian tradition.

Question & Response Session - 1:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Pastor Lewis and Imam Ayaz will respond to questions from attendees about topics related to interfaith bridge-building and the events experienced that morning.

Limited parking will be available at the Scottish Rite Temple, located on the corner diagonally across from the church. UNMC is ½ mile from both the U Street and Dupont Circle Metro Stations. There is a bus stop for the S2/S4/S9 bus routes immediately in front of the building. We apologize, but our building is not currently wheelchair accessible.

About Our Church:

Founded in 1929, UNMC is a diverse liberal Universalist Christian church; that is, liberal in that there is no creedal test to become a member of this church, Universalist in that we affirm that no soul is forever lost from the all-conquering love of God, and Christian in that the focus of our religious journey is the life and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth.

UNMC is a member congregation of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) and the Progressive Christian Alliance.
