

Sierra Club Town Hall on the Trans-Pacific Partnership

Come hear about the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) and how it affects the very sovereignty of our country by giving corporations the ability to sue our government in secret tribunals over laws and regulations that affect their “expected future profits.” Get your questions about this bad deal answered by leaders from labor, the environment, small business and the minority community.

When: April 24, 2015 7:00--Refreshments, 7:30-9:30 PM Program

Where: Cedar Lane Unitarian Universalist Church, 9601 Cedar Lane, Bethesda, Maryland 20814
Directions: (301) 493-8300 or www.cedarlane.org

We will write handwritten letters to our Congresspeople opposing the TPP before and after the speakers. We will deliver them to Sen. Mikulski, Sen. Cardin and Congressman Van Hollen. Talking points will be provided.

How would you feel if headlines like these were in the news?

- Law Raising Minimum Wages Prohibited by International Tribunal
- Law Promoting Renewable Energy Prohibited by International Tribunal
- Law putting a price on carbon prohibited by International Tribunal
- Inspection of Food and Products Produced Abroad Prohibited by International Tribunal
- Health Warnings on Tobacco Products Prohibited by International Tribunal

Speakers and co-sponsoring organizations:

Joslyn Williams President, Metro Washington Council, AFL-CIO MD

Stephen Shaff, President, Chesapeake Sustainable Business Council

Ilana Solomon, Director, Sierra Club Responsible Trade Program

Rev. Merrick Moise- Groundswell- Renewable Energy Access For Minorities

Jorge Aguilar, Food & Water Watch - Food Safety and Sovereignty

Lindolfo Carballo, Virginia State Director We Are CASA

RSVP to Molly Hauck at mollyphauck@gmail.com so we know how many refreshments to get

